

CH 3 Student Hand-out:

OEC is the standard of training for the NSP- it is the knowledge and skills needed to facilitate rescuers to operate in a variety of situations with an assortment of equipment and techniques

Standard of Care is the methods or protocols to use in providing care chosen by a specific rescue group/area management (immobilization, mercy flight, paperwork, etc)

Activities: in small groups using chart paper take 10 minutes to provide the following information. Be prepared make a brief presentation to the class.

A: 5 facts about the EMS system (the last paragraph on p 70 & pp71-73)

B: compare OEC with EMS – (pp73-74)

C. List considerations for physician involvement (p80-81)

D. List some items of the what the OEC technician does as a first responder (the first medically trained person to respond to a medical scene to provide assistance) (p74 & p76)